LUXPO

BE A PART OF LUXPO IN 2020

Now entering its sixth year, Luxpo remains a unique luxury event run by TTG Luxury and TTG Media.

The event is designed to match a range of high-end travel brands with a handpicked selection of luxury agents in practical one-to-one meetings in fabulous surroundings.

The full-day London events provide our sponsor partners with the opportunity to spend quality time with each of the 25 agents in one-to-one meetings and during a networking lunch.

Luxpo is one of the most cost-effective events in the luxury sector, giving great ROI per contact acquisition and the chance to present your product to the right kind of agents in a suitable format and environment.

Even better news – we are freezing our prices for 2020. So don't miss out on being a part of one of the best events in luxury travel.
